Amazon.com: The Archive of Magic: The Film Wizardry of ... If the above examples are "crimes" through commission, then there are also crimes of omission, or of cheating by not doing something. A crime of omission is when you fail to fulfill a responsibility. In Magic, all players in a game have a responsibility to maintain the game state; it is up to every player to ensure that nothing illegal happens. Often both players accidentally fail to do this, and when this happens a judge has to step in to figure out a way to correct the game state if ... Crimes of Omission | MAGIC: THE GATHERING However, the magic police don't even bother using this on Sirius -- the fact that he was present at the scene of the crime was all the evidence they needed to ship him off to prison indefinitely, because, apparently, civil liberties are right up there with human fashion on the list of things wizards don't understand. 5 Horrifying Realities Of The 'Harry Potter' Government ... An Auror was a highly trained specialist officer who investigated crimes involving the Dark Arts and apprehended Dark Wizards.
