Over the past two decades, the United States has successfully deregulated prices and moved entry barriers in most previously regulated industries, including airlines, trucking, ra www.researchgate.net Many property policies include a restoration of limits provision that answers this question. Three approaches are common. Some policies state that the limits are restored after a loss is paid, and some state exactly the opposite—that paying a loss does not reduce the policy limits. With others, however, after the insurer pays a total loss, coverage ceases and the insurer returns any unearned premium. Restoration of Limits Provision | Insurance Glossary ...
